ELEM USA Benefit

Written by Yael Voltzer

ELEM/Youth in Distress in Israel, which supports the work of ELEM Israel, the NGO for at-risk youth, held its annual Ray of Hope Gala, online this year. In attendance were the leaders of ELEM Israel: Nava Barak, ELEM Israel President, and Inbal Dor Kerbel, ELEM Israel CEO.

During the event, the Ray of Hope award was given to the education entrepreneur Alon Futterman, CEO of TALMA, the national program for excellence in English, for his groundbreaking work in the field of English education, to American producer, Susan Saltz, an activist for children's rights, and to actress and producer Rachel Bloom.

The entertainment portion of the night included singer and actress Diana Golbi, the winner of Israeli Idol and a former ELEM youth.
